

Statement by Tawfik Hamid
Islamic Society for Liberty and Modernity

Liberty Alliance Press Conference

March 3, 2011

Sharia law is a threat not only to the US constitution, but also it is a threat to our security. This law encourages discrimination against women, accepts slavery, and devalues the life of non-Muslims. In addition, it promotes that Muslims must declare wars against non-Muslims to spread Islam.

The real problem is that such laws are unchallenged in modern times in Sharia and represent the mainstream Sharia.

The U.S. became the beacon for liberty and freedom not by showing tolerance to barbaric values of slavery, but because it showed intolerance to such values. The U.S. MUST show the same intolerance to Islamic Sharia law to protect its freedom and liberty.
